- H. DISTRICT BUSINESS
 - 1. 7th -8th grade Parents discuss Overnight Trip with the Board. Board listened to parents' concerns about the 7th & 8th grade trip becoming a day trip with no overnight stay in a hotel. Parents expressed that their children have been looking forward to this trip once they become 7th graders. Parents were told at back to school night which was a shock to the parents. This recommendation was made to the Board back in March 2024 due to safety and liability concerns. Board suggests 2 day trips like Oak Valley. Mr. Griesbach and Mr. Mendes also expressed their reasoning with why this should become a day trip only. Mr. Brown thanked the parents for coming to speak to the Board about their disappointment of the removal of the overnight stay. He acknowledged there was a communication breakdown, but focused on how the school could still make this a memorable experience for the students.
